

- ▶ Does your School District have various chemicals located throughout school laboratories and maintenance facilities?
- ▶ Are these containers poorly labeled?
- ▶ Does your staff have a full inventory of all chemicals and how to safely handle each?

Create a safer learning environment for teachers and students by organizing or properly disposing of old chemicals and containers.

Chemical Hygiene Plan and Hazardous Materials Safety Manual

Before

Call Tom Williams
Client Solutions Manager
(570) 829-4200 x229 or twilliams@quad3.com
to discuss your project!
www.quad3.com

After

Important aspects include:

- Material Safety Data Sheets (MSDS)
- Chemical Inventories
- Training and Documentation
- Exposure Limits
- Standard Operating Procedures
- Protective Equipment
- Health Hazards
- Proper Disposal Procedures
- Emergency Response Plan

Quad3 Group can assist your School District in developing a Chemical Hygiene Plan and Hazardous Materials Safety Manual in accordance with OSHA Standards.